How did you learn about this program?

Have you ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic offense? Yes No

If yes, explain:

PLEASE SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING WITH YOUR APPLICATION:

Fellowship Proposal

A single-spaced, typed proposal (not to exceed three pages) describing how you would use the Robert Novak Journalism Fellowship to undertake and complete a journalism project supportive of American culture and a free society. Provide a brief summary of the four installments which would be due over the course of the year. Indicate the intended publishing outlet for your completed project. Also include a statement explaining why you are applying for this fellowship. Only one proposal will be accepted from each candidate.

Samples of Your Work

Please enclose five sets of three relevant samples of your work which demonstrates your journalistic abilities and your commitment to advancing constitutional principles, a democratic society and a vibrant economic system based upon private enterprise.

Curriculum Vitae

A typed résumé including details of your work history, educational background, and your commitment to journalism.

Budget Statement

A detailed budget statement listing anticipated fellowship costs directly related to the fellowship, such as travel and research materials. Also indicate what funds, if any, would be available to you during the fellowship year from other sources.

References

Please have three individuals familiar with your work and your fellowship proposal submit a letter of recommendation directly to The Novak Journalism Fellowship Program, postmarked by Feb. 13, 2017. List the names and addresses of your references above. References may be emailed to vhenderson@TFAS.org.
